Can a late evening drop off be arranged?

Yes, call Rhonda at the number above to arrange to drop off after business hours.

Do all items need to be new?

Yes, please ensure that all items are new. We do not accept used items (even gently used).

Can I wrap the gifts?

To help us with the bagging process items should not be wrapped.

What if I cannot find the specific item a child is looking for?

If you are not able to find the item the child has requested, use your best judgment. Look for a similar item or substitute it with an item you think the child would like.

Should I supply gift receipts?

Gift receipts are not necessary.

Can I deliver my gifts to kids personally or meet some of the kids in your program?

Due to very strict confidentiality laws and our firm commitment to the safety and well being of our families, members of the community may not interact with the clients.

Is my gift tax deductible? How do I get a tax receipt?

Yes, donations to the toy drive are tax deductible. To receive a tax receipt for your donation, fill out the attached Donation Tax Receipt form and bring it with your donation for a signature or if you are donating through a business please send with gift and we will mail your form to you.

Will I get a personal thank you for my gift?

Due to privacy concerns of the children and families, we are not able to send individual acknowledgements. Please know that each and every gift goes to a deserving child and is much appreciated.

Thank you for making the holidays brighter for the kids!
